I hereby apply for Probationary Membership of The Clifton Club on the basis of Rule 4A which reads as follows:-

'Probationary Members'

Candidates for membership who are unable to find proposers may be considered for Probationary Membership on the following basis:-

- a) They will be required to appear before a Membership Committee which will determine whether or not they shall be granted Probationary Membership.
- b) If that Committee, in its sole discretion so determines, then the candidates concerned shall be immediately admitted to membership and half the annual subscription will be charged without entrance fee. Any candidate so admitted will be required to visit the Club to meet other Members on at least two separate occasions within a period of four months after his admission. Admission will be on the understanding that after a period of four months, their application will be voted upon by the Board as required in Rule 4 and, if successful, the remainder of the subscription and the entrance fee will become payable. Upon election the Candidate's name shall be entered by the Secretary in the Candidate's book as a record of those who have been elected for membership.

Election of Candidates:

To secure election a Candidate must receive in his favour not less than three-quarters of the votes recorded by Members of the Committee present at such meeting, but two black balls shall in any event exclude. If less than six Members shall be present at such meeting, the election shall be postponed until the next meeting at which at least six Members are present.

A Candidate after rejection may be only proposed once again, not sooner than six months after rejection and may not be admissible to the Club as a visitor.
